

Telephone Marketing

We are seeking a highly motivated telephone sales representative. This position involves telephone contact to market our products and services to new and existing customers. Previous sales, marketing and service experience is a plus. A professional telephone manner and the ability to work well with others are required.

The position requires excellent interpersonal and communication skills and computer skills. Previous insurance background is a plus. Comprehensive training is provided. Bilingual English/Spanish preferred.

Compensation includes a base hourly pay plus productivity incentive.

For more information visit us on the web at <http://pacificway.net> or call 909-989-3829.